

Sokolove Law Congratulates Bartimus Frickleton Robertson & Gorny

7-Figure Settlement Awarded for Injuries

July 28, 2009, Newton, MA – Sokolove Law LLC, the leader in the reinvention of how people obtain legal services, today congratulates Bartimus Frickleton Robertson & Gorny on its recent settlement win in Missouri.

The case was a Cerebral Palsy case involving a ruptured uterus from a dilation and curettage years earlier, and the settlement included a seven-figure award in favor of the plaintiff.

“We’d like to thank the staff of Sokolove Law for all of their assistance in recommending our office,” said James Bartimus, President and Senior Partner of Bartimus Frickleton Robertson & Gorny “Though this case had been previously turned down as non-meritorious, Sokolove Law’s intake screening process was able to provide the proper encouragement and legal counsel to enable our client to seek an additional opinion.”

With offices in Kansas and Missouri, Bartimus Frickleton Robertson & Gorny represents people who need trial lawyers. Mr. Bartimus’ practice is specific to the areas of medical negligence and pharmaceutical litigation.

“This settlement is well deserved for Jim and his team. Bartimus Frickleton Robertson & Gorny’s work is a testament to our affiliate network and we’re pleased to have them as our affiliate,” said Michael Skoler, Chief Executive Officer of Sokolove Law. “After all, this case was initially turned down by another firm. But, by sticking to our mission of providing access to the civil justice system, we identified a law firm that was willing to help this victim and their family.”

Sokolove Law’s growing network of over 400 affiliates allows the firm to match the unique legal needs of each client with the firm best fit - based on practice area, region and quality of service.
